Metro Arts, The Independents 2010
Wednesday 30 June – Saturday 16 July

Co-presented by Metro Arts & ...and moor theatre

Something has happened and while Sarah can't remember exactly what event transpired in the gardens – there is the feeling that all is not as it should be. Fragments of her memory are returning slowly but whether they are real or imagined is unclear, much to the chagrin of Sarah's parents-in-law, Yvonne and Patrick, who are waiting – on baited breath – for her to recollect what is now lost. Tender explores the depth and breadth of what it means to love. Andrea Moor joins forces with acclaimed designer Ross Wallace, to direct and perform in playwright Nicki Bloom's breathtakingly beautiful work.

'Tender offers a moving exploration of the nature of intense love: in the living and in the memory, and in the everyday.' Mark Hopkins, Sydney Morning Herald
